

THE WORSHIP OF GOD

Third Sunday in Lent

Welcome Rev. Dr. Kathryn Kimmel

Prelude Word of God, Across the Ages arr. Mark Hayes
David Córdoba Hernandez, pianist

Call to Worship¹ Mark Weston

Leader: If you would enter into the wilderness, do not begin without a blessing. Do not leave without hearing who you are: Beloved, named by the One who has traveled this path before you. Do not go without letting it echo in your ears, and if you find it is hard to let it into your heart, do not despair.

All: That is what this journey is for.

Invocation Mark Weston

Leader: For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us . . .

All: Thanks be to God.

Prayer of Confession Rev. Ray Hatton

All: Lord, we remember the depths of your love for us, and we repent of our half-hearted discipleship.

We have been called to deny ourselves: forgive us for putting self-interest before the interests of your kingdom; forgive us that Christ's lordship in our hearts has been challenged by our ambition, our appetites, our desires, and our needs; forgive us for the times when self-interest hindered our care for others.

Leader: Lord have mercy,

All: Christ have mercy.

All: Lord, we have been called to carry a cross; forgive us for complaining when it has weighed heavily upon us; forgive us that, having received so much, we have sacrificed little; forgive us for the limits we have set to Christian love; forgive us that we have settled for mediocrity, resisting the fire and passion of Christ's love upon the cross.

Leader: Christ have mercy,

All: Lord have mercy.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
